Question	Sub Question	Answer	Notes
Are you using Handheld Computers or Smartphones?	No Wards	N/A	See below
	All Wards	YES	Yes/ No
	Some Wards	All SBU Hospital sites & ward areas	Morriston Hospital Singleton Hospital Neath Port Talbot Community & MH Sites
What type of Handheld Computer or Smartphone are you using?	Apple iPad	YES	Yes
	Google Android Tablet	YES	Yes
	Windows Tablet		Yes
	Apple Handheld Computer or Smartphone	YES	Yes
	Android Handheld Computer or Smartphone	YES	Yes/ No
	Alternative Device	N/A
Do you have an active HIMMS Project?		Yes, HIMMS is used for benchmarking and to guide the wider strategy development. We have 6 programmes that all have the aim of digital transformation these are actually wider that HIMMS
What is your current HIMMS score?		We have conducted a high level self assessment and the scores came out as follows:- • Electronic Medical Record Adoption: Level 2; • Outpatient Electronic Medical Record Adoption: Level 3; • Continuity of Care Maturity: Level 2; • Infrastructure Adoption: Level 5;

		• Adoption Model of Analytics: Level 6. 0-7
Are you a Global Digital Exemplar (GDE) site?		No
Are you using a Handheld Computer or Smartphone based E-Observations App?		No
Are you using a Blood Tracking System at the Bedside on a Handheld Computer or Smartphone?		No	Yes/ No & Name of Software Product
Do you have an electronic Requesting System (OrderComms) in place or planned for ordering Bloods or Samples?		Yes – Welsh Clinical Portal	Yes/ & Name of Software Product
Does your IT Department have a Trust Integration Engine for System Interoperability?		The Health Board integrates systems through the national Fiorano integration engine (Managed by NHS Wales Informatics Service)	Yes/ No – this allows system interoperability within your organisation