You asked:

How much is the charge for an overseas tourist who comes to A&E to give birth please? Both with and without an epidural.

Also

- 1) to see a obstetrician ONCE
- 2) one blood test (1st trimester)
- 3) one ultra sound (1st trimester)

Our response:

Please note that there is not charge from treatment in an Emergency Department (A&E) setting. Once the patient is transferred to the labour ward to give birth, this is when charges apply.

Please further note that prices vary depending on the comorbidity and complication (CC score) of each individual patient. The higher complication score, the more complex the procedure.
