Dear [REDACTED] and [REDACTED],

My apologies for the delay in being able to offer you availability however this has been purely as a result of the constraints on the diaries, I am sorry.

Unfortunately, our CEO, Abigail Harris, has no capacity over the coming week and she is on annual leave w/c 10th February so in agreement with our Chair, Jan Williams, and CEO, Abigail, in order to expedite the arrangements for this meeting, it has been agreed that it will proceed with our Chair, Jan, and our Director of Corporate Governance, Hazel Lloyd.

On reviewing Jan and Hazel's diaries, I can offer Thursday 13th February, 12:00 – 13:00, via Teams.

Can I ask if this time would be convenient to you, please? I will hold this time in the diaries until we can confirm.

With kind regards,

Hi Jan

Thank you so much for your response, we really appreciate you giving us your time, given the considerable pressure you are under.

I have copied in both my and Phil's PA's who will help coordinate diaries.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED], could we please possibly prioritise this meeting when the date comes through.

Good evening, Rabina,

Yes, [REDACTED] did mention this to me and I can well understand your wanting to hear from others going through a similar experience. Abi Harris, Chief Executive, and I would be pleased to have a Teams call with you and Phil, your CE. We have some considerable experience that we can talk you through.

We have a very busy week ahead but hopefully, we can set up a call for next week- [REDACTED], who runs our offices, will be in touch.

I hope that this is helpful

Kind regards, Jan

Dear Jan

I hope you don't mind me reaching out, I understand [REDACTED] may have briefed you.

I wonder if myself and Phil our CEO could arrange a brief call with you to explore how you have managed some challenges in relation to maternity services please.

If so I can make the necessary diary arrangements for a Teams call.

Kind regards
